

MODERN SLAVERY ACT STATEMENT

This statement is made by Vroon Group B.V., on behalf of itself and its affiliates, pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015, and constitutes the Group's slavery and human-trafficking statement.

It covers the activities of Vroon Group which has its head office in the Netherlands and is active - through various subsidiaries and under different brand names - worldwide, including in the United Kingdom (UK entities listed below). Vroon Group is a shipping company operating a fleet of modern vessels in the following business segments: livestock carriers; offshore-support vessels; offshore installation, maintenance and engineering services; dry-cargo vessels; container vessels; product/chemical tankers; asphalt/bitumen tankers; car carriers and vessel-management services.

We are committed to improving our practices to combat slavery and human trafficking in our business and within our supply chains, subcontractor services and partners.

We have zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking. As part of our initiative to identify and mitigate risks, we strive to build long-standing relationships with local suppliers. When new suppliers enter our supply chain we ensure they are made aware and commit themselves to adhere to our ethical standards.

It is part of the Vroon Core Values that all employees abide to acceptable standards of behaviour.

This statement has been approved by the Vroon Group Board of Directors.
